

Tokaj Herself

women, wine, wisdom

28th AUGUST – 1st SEPTEMBER
2026

An Organic Exploration with Borett Team

Experience Tokaj through women's eyes, where vineyards, villages, and traditions reveal their charm at a gentle, unhurried pace.

Immerse yourself in mindful workshops, vineyard picnics, and hands-on encounters with local women.

Savour authentic meals, artisanal wines, and seasonal flavours that reflect the region's heritage. Relax with yoga, thermal baths, and serene manor visits that nurture both body and spirit.

Embrace a path of discovery, connection, and timeless elegance, tailored for the discerning, adventurous woman.

Day 1 – Friday, 28. August 2026

Arrive in Budapest and settle into your hotel with a smooth, private airport transfer, allowing you time to relax, freshen up, and ease into the city's rhythm.

In the afternoon, leave the urban buzz behind and journey to a peaceful wine region in the Hungarian countryside, surrounded by gentle hills and vineyards. Your destination is a family-run estate rooted in tradition, nature, and slow-living values.

The experience begins with a herbal workshop where you'll explore the region's botanical heritage hosted by Timi, the amazing lady knowledge of herbs and medical flowers. Expect hands-on activities, natural scents, and a calming, mindful atmosphere.

As the sun dips lower, enjoy a warm, home-style dinner paired with local wines. Fresh ingredients, traditional recipes, comforting flavours, and thoughtful pairings create a wholesome, authentic countryside meal crafted by Saci, a talented cook and pastry chef, the kind that nourishes both body and soul.

After dinner, sit back and unwind during your evening transfer back to Budapest.

Highlights of the Day

- Woman teamwork at a family-run natural winery
- Hands-on herbal workshop exploring local botanical heritage
- Authentic countryside dinner with some card games

Day 2 – Saturday, 29. August 2026

After breakfast, we travel to Tokaj, Europe's iconic volcanic wine region. The day begins with a vineyard picnic in a historic hilltop vineyard, surrounded by ancient vines and sun-warmed stones. Local cold cuts and crisp wines make for a truly scenic and relaxed lunch.

In the afternoon, we visit a castle for a unique cosmetic workshop, where you'll create your own cream using Tokaj Aszú wine. It's a sensory experience that combines beauty, tradition, and the subtle magic of the region's famous sweet wines.

In the evening, we have a wine tasting followed by a dinner that we will cook together. An authentic experience of Hungarian summer meals.

Highlights of the Day

- Vineyard picnic with scenic hilltop views
- Castle cosmetic workshop using Tokaj Aszú wine
- Wine tasting and dinner with a famous chef-sommelier

Day 3 – Sunday, 30 August 2026

Begin your morning with a gentle yoga session, awakening the body and establishing a mindful tone for the day ahead.

Afterwards, we travel to a tiny village where we join the local gypsy community in preparing and sharing an authentic lunch. As we cook and dine together, you'll get a warm, personal glimpse into the rhythms and traditions of everyday village life.

In the afternoon, we explore a magnificent historic manor in the region. Discover stories hidden in the walls, admire intricate architectural details, and enjoy moments of quiet reflection in this elegant, timeless setting. Later, unwind and refresh at a nearby local spa, letting the calm waters rejuvenate both body and mind.

Evening brings a casual dinner around the guesthouse, featuring a communal grill with fresh, seasonal ingredients paired with local wines — a relaxed, social end to a day of discovery and connection.

Highlights of the Day

- Morning yoga to start the day mindfully
- Cooking and sharing an authentic village lunch
- Historic manor visit and relaxing local spa experience

Day 4 – Monday, 31 August 2026

After breakfast, we begin the day at an artisan vinegar manufactory, where we taste vibrant, healthful sips crafted with care. The experience is both sensory and mindful, offering a glimpse into the region's dedication to natural, artisanal production.

Next, the first female cooper in a four-generation family presents a hands-on barrel-making demonstration, continuing a craft that once supplied barrels even to the Russian Tsar. Witness tradition and skill come alive in this rare, inspiring encounter.

Later, we visit a woman-owned organic winery, where a curated tasting pairs perfectly with a light, cold meal. Each wine reflects the care and vision of its maker, celebrating both the volcanic terroir and the artistry of its feminine creator. The relaxed setting encourages conversation, reflection, and the joy of savouring flavours slowly. At the winery, we will have some nice games and conversations, followed by a walk in the vineyards.

Highlights of the Day

- Visiting the first female cooper
- Curated wine tasting at a woman-run winery
- Farewell dinner

In the evening, we return to Budapest for a farewell dinner, a heartfelt close to our shared adventure.
